

Gatekeepers class
Week ending: 4th February 2022
Core value focus: Trust

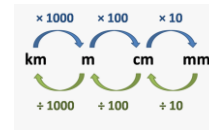

English

This week we have read a book called the Rain Player which is based on Mayan folklore. We have examined the text closely looking at how the sentences help to put images of the characters and setting into our ideas. We have looked closely at the main characters in the story to help us write similes and metaphors.

Maths

This week we have been busy measuring! We have learned how to measure in cm, mm and m. Some of us have also solved problems in km. We have used our brilliant place value skills to help us convert measurements. We found it particularly challenging to measure accurately to the nearest mm but we have greatly improved over the week.

RE

We have explored the different ways in which Christians express their beliefs. We examined the bible passage Matthew 28:16-20 where Jesus tells the disciples to spread the word of God to others. We thought about what this means to Christians and how worshipping together helps create a feeling of community.

We have also been fortunate to meet Reverend Ian, who is a curate at St Stephen's church in Norwich. We thought of a long list of questions to ask him to find out about his own life and the way Christians worship in his church.

Music

We are really enjoying our ukulele lessons with Mr. Hall. The children are all making amazing progress

PE

This week Miss Fairbrother continued teaching us gymnastic skills and this week the children had climbing apparatus out too.

RSHE

We have continued our work around triggers in our body that make us feel anxious and discussed how to acknowledge these feels and tools we can use to help us.

DT & Art

In DT, we have researched Maya headdresses and drafted our own designs, thinking carefully about the materials we would need.

As artists we have listened to music as drawn pictures that came to our minds. We reflected on how moods can be influenced by music.
